

Country:

China

Intern Locations:

Beijing, China

Job Description:

Internships are available in Beijing, China with the Beijing Center for Policy Research, partnered with the American Carter Center www.chinaelections.net to research public policy in order to boost democratic development, as well as to manage the China Elections and Governance website. Students should have interest in the issues facing China, and will participate in projects, edit the website and write articles relevant to China. Other responsibilities will vary but may include document translation, event planning, research, and speech writing. Students may be offered a range of projects according to interests and academic background.

Language Requirements:

Mandarin strongly preferred.

Prerequisites:

- Matriculated undergraduate student at the University of Utah
- Junior or Senior Status
- Cumulative 3.0 GPA
- Students must register for Political Science 4900 “political internship” to qualify.

Preference Given to Students Who Have:

- Completed previous Hinckley internships in Washington, DC, the Utah Legislature or with local/state agencies.
- Prior international experience including (study abroad, personal travel, humanitarian and/or religious service).

Semester/Dates:

<http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/index.html>

Cost:

Students must pay tuition and be prepared to cover flight, living and transportation expenses, personal expenses, health insurance, and fees for visa and passport applications.

Financial Assistance:

Apply for a Hinckley Institute of Politics International Scholarship

<http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/international/internationalscholarshipapplication.pdf>.

The Hinckley Institute of Politics also offers the Bill Rischel Loan, for more information contact Jayne Nelson at jnelson@hinckley.utah.edu. Financial aid for tuition may be obtained through University of Utah financial aid or scholarships.

Housing:

Students are responsible for securing their own housing. Intern host office may assist students with finding housing.

Application Process:

Complete the application online at:

<http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/application/index.html>

Once your application is submitted, e-mail intern manager Courtney McBeth to set up an appointment. She will interview you and will help you find an internship that matches your interests and qualifications.

Orientation:

All students who are accepted as an international intern are required to attend a mandatory orientation, complete the academic requirements, send weekly emails during the internship, and set up a post internship debriefing with Courtney McBeth.