

Country:

Mexico

Intern Locations:

Mexico City, Mexico

Job Description:

Internship available in Mexico with the Grupo Estrategia Politica the top lobbying firm in the country, for more information about Grupo Estrategia Politica please visit <http://www.gep.com.mx/home/>. Interns will have the opportunity to assist in the development of client strategies and interact with Mexican diplomats as well as high profile clients. Interns will assist in daily operations, research on various projects and contracts, write reports, assist in the preparation of visits, and engage in public and private diplomacy. Interns may also be asked to assist in various other capacities in order to make the internship a productive learning experience

Language Requirements:

Fluent Spanish

Prerequisites:

- Matriculated undergraduate student at the University of Utah
- Junior or Senior Status
- Cumulative 3.0 GPA
- Students must register for Political Science 4900 "political internship" to qualify.

Preference Given to Students Who Have:

- Completed previous Hinckley internships in Washington, DC, the Utah Legislature or with local/state agencies.
- Prior international experience including (study abroad, personal travel, humanitarian and/or religious service).

Semester/Dates:

<http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/index.html>

Cost:

Students must pay tuition and be prepared to cover flight, living and transportation expenses, personal expenses, health insurance, and fees for visa and passport applications.

Financial Assistance:

Students may apply for a Hinckley Institute of Politics International Scholarship <http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/international/internationalscholarshipapplicatin.pdf> The Hinckley Institute of Politics also offers the Bill Rischel Loan, for more information contact Jayne Nelson at jnelson@hinckley.utah.edu. Financial aid for tuition may be obtained through University of Utah financial aid or scholarships.

Housing:

Students will be responsible for securing their own housing. Intern host office may assist students with finding housing.

Application Process:

Complete the application online at:

<http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/application/index.html> Once your application is submitted, e-mail intern manager Courtney McBeth to set up an appointment. She will interview you and will help you find an internship that matches your interests and qualifications.

Orientation:

All students who are accepted as an international intern are required to attend a mandatory orientation, complete the academic requirements, send weekly emails during the internship, and set up a post internship debriefing with Courtney McBeth.