

Country:

China

Intern Locations:

Shanghai, China

Job Description:

Internships available in Shanghai, China with the American Chamber of Commerce. <http://www.amcham-shanghai.org/AmchamPortal/>. Interns may be asked to research and update regional business information and statistics. Keep abreast of the latest Chinese regulatory issues. Coordinate and maintain relationships with clients. Help compose briefs and articles for publication and assist with PR for marketing events around China. Interns may be asked to conduct research on Non-Governmental Organizations in Shanghai and approve their admittance into the American Chamber of Commerce network. Students may be offered a range of projects according to interests and academic background. NOTE: The World Trade Center, China has the ability to place interns in other locations depending upon interests, skill set, and need.

Language Requirements:

Mandarin preferred, but not required.

Prerequisites:

- Matriculated undergraduate student at the University of Utah
- Junior or Senior Status
- Cumulative 3.0 GPA
- Students must register for Political Science 4900 “political internship” to qualify.

Preference Given to Students Who Have:

- Completed previous Hinckley internships in Washington, DC, the Utah Legislature or with local/state agencies.
- Prior international experience including (study abroad, personal travel, humanitarian and/or religious service).

Semester/Dates:

<http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/index.html>

Cost:

Students must pay tuition and be prepared to cover flight, living and transportation expenses, personal expenses, health insurance, and fees for visa and passport applications.

Financial Assistance:

Students may apply for a Hinckley Institute of Politics International Scholarship <http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/international/internationalscholarshipapplication.pdf>. The Hinckley Institute of Politics also offers the Bill Rischel Loan, for more information contact Jayne Nelson at jnelson@hinckley.utah.edu. Financial aid for tuition may be obtained through University of Utah financial aid or scholarships.

Housing:

Students will be responsible for securing their own housing. Intern host office may assist students with finding housing.

Application Process:

Complete the application online at:

<http://www.hinckley.utah.edu/internships/application/index.html>

Once your application is submitted, e-mail intern manager Courtney McBeth to set up an appointment. She will interview you and will help you find an internship that matches your interests and qualifications.

Orientation:

All students who are accepted as an international intern are required to attend a mandatory orientation, complete the academic requirements, send weekly emails during the internship, and set up a post internship debriefing with Courtney McBeth